1 APPLICATION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

2 Plaintiff respectfully submits herewith his Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (Form
3 AO 239) and supporting financial information. Due to current unemployment, complete lack of 4 income, denial of unemployment benefits, and the freezing of his 401(k) retirement account by
5 his former employer at the request of opposing counsel in the removed state proceedings,
6 Plaintiff is unable to prepay the filing fee.

7 REQUEST FOR DELAYED SERVICE

8 Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court permit delayed service of the full removal package
9 and RICO Complaint upon the opposing parties until after the Court rules on the Emergency
10 Motion for Temporary Restraining Order. Immediate service would expose Plaintiff and his 11 minor son Max Mars to further irreparable harm, including retaliation, interference with this 12 Court's jurisdiction, and continued acts of malicious prosecution, extortion and racketeering by 13 the named defendants and their associates, as documented in the Consolidated Evidence Binder
14 - Exhibit A.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

Plaintiff Kostiantyn Mars respectfully removes the following state court actions to this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441, 1443, 1455, 1331, and 1343:

Related State Court Matters Being Removed:

- Criminal Case No. B2402220
- Domestic Violence Case No. 22DV000779
- Family Law / Divorce / Custody Case No. 22FL003144
- Name Change Case No. 24CV441024
- DCSS Wage Garnishment and Arrears Enforcement Case No. 200000002626999

I. STATUTORY BASIS FOR REMOVAL

This Notice of Removal is filed pursuant to:

- 28 U.S.C. § 1443 (Civil rights removal)
- 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (Federal question jurisdiction)
- 28 U.S.C. § 1343 (Civil rights and equal protection enforcement)
- 28 U.S.C. § 1455 (Criminal prosecutions removal procedure)
- 28 U.S.C. § 1367 (Supplemental jurisdiction over related DCSS enforcement)
- 28 U.S.C. § 1651 (All Writs Act)
- 28 U.S.C. § 1441 (General removal provision)

II. CASES BEING REMOVED

Petitioner removes the following related state-court proceedings in their entirety for federal review and adjudication:

- Santa Clara County Superior Court Criminal Case B2402220
- Santa Clara County Superior Court Domestic Violence Case 22DV000779
- Santa Clara County Superior Court Family Law / Divorce / Custody Case 22FL003144
- Santa Clara County Superior Court Name Change Case 24CV441024
- DCSS Wage Garnishment and Arrears Enforcement Case 200000002626999 (arising directly from void orders issued in Case 22FL003144)

III. GROUNDS FOR REMOVAL

Removal is warranted because the state proceedings involve systemic deprivation of constitutional rights, denial of due process, and a pattern of racketeering activity under color of law in California, enforced on the state level. Specifically:

- All orders issued by disqualified judges (Stephen Lowney, Andrea Flint, and James Towery) are void ab initio under California Code of Civil Procedure § 170.4(d).

- Petitioner was subjected to extortion of his 401(k) funds, vehicle title, and minor child Max Mars's passport and identity documents, enforced through threats of incarceration, denial of hearings, and denial of access to court.

See Consolidated Evidence Binder – Exhibit A, Set 3 (Volume 4), Exhibits A-27 (Key Statements and Material Facts from the February 7, 2024 Hearing) and A-28 (Transcript of Hearing before Judge Lowney, February 7, 2024).

See also Consolidated Evidence Binder – Exhibit A, Set 3 (Volume 4), Exhibit A-38 (Public Record of Racketeering by Serhii “Gordon” Nahorny (father of Respondent Hanna Mars) and his criminal associate Ivan “Pedofile” Omelchenko in Ukraine (2015) — Repeating the Same Pattern in the Attack on Petitioner (2022)).

- Unlawful wage garnishment and fabricated arrears in DCSS Case 200000002626999 constitute direct predicate acts of extortion and money laundering.

- Fabricated criminal charges, bench warrants, and arrest warrants were issued after Petitioner's lawful disqualification statements and while he was present in open court requesting dismissal.

See Consolidated Evidence Binder – Exhibit A, Set 3 (Volume 4), Exhibits A-33 through A-37 (Void Bench Warrant by Judge Lowney, Criminal Bench Warrant by Judge Williams, Video Recordings of Hearings before Judges Kuhnle and Williams, Sunnyvale PD Denial of Access to Body Camera Recordings, and Arrest Warrant by Judge Michael Clark).

- Change of venue to another county, numerous appeals, removal of disqualified judges, and nullification of void orders were denied by presiding judge Beth McGowen, thereby

1 perpetuating the deprivation of rights on the county level.

- 2
- 3 • Oversight bodies, including the California Commission on Judicial Performance (CJP),
4 California State Bar, and California Attorney General's Office refused to intervene in
5 child trafficking schema / international child abduction and targeted racketeering attack
6 on Petitioner, denying multiple RICO complaints to CJP and AG offices, thereby
7 perpetuating the deprivation of rights on the state level.

8 See Consolidated Evidence Binder – Exhibit A, Set 6 (Volume 9), Exhibits A-59 through
9 A-62 (Denials of 54 RICO complaints by Tania Schrag at CJP, California Bar
10 Association denials of complaints against attorneys Dinneen and Roberts, and 11 correspondence to high-level California and federal officials requesting intervention).

12 These acts form a continuous pattern of racketeering activity (18 U.S.C. § 1961 et seq.) on the 13 state level in California designed to coerce surrender of assets, parental rights, and to facilitate 14 international child abduction.

IV. ABSTENTION DOCTRINES DO NOT BAR FEDERAL JURISDICTION

This Court has original federal question jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343 and removal jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441, 1443, and 1455. The doctrines of Younger abstention, the domestic relations exception, and Rooker-Feldman do not preclude removal or this Court's exercise of jurisdiction for the following reasons:

1. Younger abstention does not apply because the state proceedings are being conducted in bad faith and for the purpose of harassment. The underlying Domestic Violence Restraining Order issued on November 28, 2023 is void ab initio under California Code of Civil Procedure § 170.4(d), having been issued by disqualified judge Flint who continued to act after timely Statements of Disqualification were filed and ignored. The criminal prosecution (Case B2402220) was fabricated and used as leverage for extortion of Movant's 401(k) funds, vehicle title, and minor child's passport and identity documents under documented threats of incarceration (February 7, 2024 hearing before Judge Lowney). Extraordinary circumstances exist where the California state courts are structurally incapable of providing due process due to the documented racketeering enterprise on the California state level.
2. The domestic relations exception is inapplicable. While certain removed matters involve family law proceedings, the core claims arise under federal civil rights and RICO statutes (42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961-1968) for systemic deprivation of constitutional rights, extortion under color of law, child trafficking, denial of access to court and malicious prosecution. Federal courts retain jurisdiction over such independent constitutional and statutory claims even when they touch upon domestic relations.
3. Rooker-Feldman doctrine does not bar this action. Movant does not seek to review or vacate final state-court judgments in the sense prohibited by Rooker-Feldman. Rather, Movant challenges ongoing deprivations of federal rights arising from void orders issued by disqualified judges and a pattern of racketeering that is causing irreparable harm and continues to this day. The claims are independent of any state-court judgment and seek prospective relief from continuing constitutional violations.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Accept removal of all listed cases and assume full jurisdiction.
2. Immediately stay all enforcement actions, warrants and orders pending federal review.
3. Dismiss Criminal Case B2402220 with prejudice and expunge all related warrants and records including Bench warrant No. 002400020658 (08/21/2024), and Arrest warrant No. 2400025644 (10/23/2024).
4. Dismiss DCSS Case 200000002626999 in its entirety, vacate all fabricated arrears, and order immediate deletion of all negative credit reporting.
5. Declare all orders and warrants issued in Cases 22FL003144 and 22DV000779 (including family bench warrant issued on June 17, 2024) void ab initio and permanently nullify them.
6. Authorize immediate emergency withdrawal / release of Petitioner's 401(k) funds.
7. Issue a final divorce decree (or bifurcation of marital status) in Case 22FL003144.
8. Restore full legal and physical custody of minor child Max Mars to Petitioner and direct the U.S. Department of Justice International Parental Kidnapping Unit to assist with safe return of a kidnapped child.
9. Grant name change: Kostiantyn Mars to Royce Mars (Case 24CV441024).
10. Issue protective SSN/ID relief (new SSN to prevent further fraud).
11. Order return of Petitioner's vehicle VW Tiguan (CA plate 7ZND242).
12. Award treble damages under 18 U.S.C. § 1964(c) in the amount of $750,000 for all property injuries caused by the unlawful DCSS wage garnishment, fabricated arrears, and related predicate acts of extortion and theft (as fully documented in Consolidated Evidence Binder - Exhibit A, Set 5, Exhibits A-49 through A-54, including the DCSS Wage Garnishment Summary Chart and Total Extortion and Theft Summary Chart), together with compensatory damages in the amount of $250,000 and punitive damages in the amount of $5,000,000 to punish and deter the egregious, malicious, and oppressive conduct of the racketeering enterprise operating under color of law.
13. Declare the vexatious litigant pre-filing order issued on March 11, 2024 in Case No. 22FL003144 by disqualified Judge Stephen Lowney void ab initio under California Code of Civil Procedure § 170.4(d), vacate said order with prejudice, and direct the California Judicial Council and the Clerk of the Santa Clara County Superior Court to

1 immediately remove Plaintiff Kostiantyn Mars from the statewide Vexatious
2 Litigant List maintained pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 391.7.

3 14. In light of the documented pattern of racketeering and retaliation, threats of unlawful
4 incarceration, and systemic corruption within the Santa Clara County Superior Court,
5 Plaintiff respectfully requests that any hearing on the Emergency Motion for Temporary
6 Restraining Order or the Motion to Dismiss Criminal Case B2402220 be conducted
7 remotely by video with mandatory audio and video recording by the Court. This
8 safeguard is necessary to protect Plaintiff's safety, prevent further violations of due
9 process, and ensure independent federal oversight of the proceedings.

10 VI. CONCLUSION

11 The removed state actions constitute ongoing violations of Petitioner's constitutional rights and 12 a pattern of racketeering under color of law. Federal removal and immediate injunctive relief
13 are necessary to prevent irreparable harm and to restore Petitioner's fundamental rights.

EMERGENCY MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Plaintiff Kostiantyn Mars respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(b), for an immediate Temporary Restraining Order staying all enforcement actions in the removed state court matters and granting the comprehensive relief set forth below. This motion is filed concurrently with Plaintiff's Notice of Removal under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343, 1367, 1441, 1443, 1455, and 1651.

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff faces imminent and irreparable harm from the continued enforcement of void orders issued by disqualified judges, including unlawful arrest warrants, fabricated criminal charges, wage garnishment, denial of access to the courts, and the ongoing international abduction of his minor son Max Mars. Immediate injunctive relief is required to preserve the status quo, protect Plaintiff's constitutional rights, prevent further extortion and racketeering under color of law, and restore custody of his son pending full federal review.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The facts supporting removal and this motion are set forth in detail in the concurrently filed Notice of Removal and are incorporated herein by reference. In summary:

- All orders in the removed cases were issued by disqualified judges (Stephen Lowney, Andrea Flint, James Towery) after lawful disqualification statements and are therefore void ab initio under California Code of Civil Procedure § 170.4(d).
- Plaintiff has been subjected to extortion of his 401(k) division, vehicle title, and minor child Max Mars's passport and identity documents through threats of incarceration and denial of hearings.
- Fabricated criminal proceedings (Case B2402220), multiple arrest and bench warrants, and unlawful DCSS wage garnishment (Case 200000002626999) have been used as instruments of racketeering and malicious prosecution.
- Plaintiff's son Max Mars remains unlawfully detained and at risk of international abduction to Ukraine under void orders issued by the Santa Clara Mafia Cartel.
- A vexatious litigant order issued on March 11, 2024 by disqualified Judge Lowney after his disqualification on February 20, 2024 is likewise void ab initio.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

A temporary restraining order is warranted where the movant shows: (1) a substantial likelihood of success on the merits; (2) a substantial threat of irreparable injury; (3) that the threatened injury outweighs any damage the injunction may cause the opposing party; and (4) that the injunction will not disserve the public interest. Winter v. Natural Resources Defense Council, Inc., 555 U.S. 7 (2008). All four factors are satisfied here.

IV. ABSTENTION DOCTRINES DO NOT PRECLUDE EMERGENCY RELIEF

The doctrines of Younger abstention, the domestic relations exception, and Rooker-Feldman do not bar this Court from granting immediate injunctive relief. The state proceedings are infected by bad faith and extraordinary circumstances: void ab initio orders issued by disqualified judges, documented extortion under color of law, and the use of fabricated criminal charges as leverage to extort assets and restrict parental rights. No adequate remedy exists in the state forum due to the systemic corruption and concealment of disqualifications by the presiding judges. Federal intervention is not only permitted but required to prevent irreparable harm to Movant's constitutional rights and the safety and custody of the minor child.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court immediately enter a Temporary Restraining Order:

1. Accepting removal of all listed cases and assuming full jurisdiction.
2. Staying all enforcement actions, warrants and orders pending federal review.
3. Dismissing Criminal Case B2402220 with prejudice and expunging all related warrants and records including Bench warrant No. 002400020658 (08/21/2024), and Arrest warrant No. 2400025644 (10/23/2024).
4. Dismissing DCSS Case 200000002626999 in its entirety, vacating all fabricated arrears, and ordering immediate deletion of all negative credit reporting.
5. Declaring all orders and warrants issued in Cases 22FL003144 and 22DV000779 (including family bench warrant issued on June 17, 2024) void ab initio and permanently nullify them.
6. Authorizing immediate emergency withdrawal / release of Petitioner's 401(k) funds.
7. Issuing a final divorce decree (or bifurcation of marital status) in Case 22FL003144.
8. Restoring full legal and physical custody of minor child Max Mars to Plaintiff and directing the U.S. Department of Justice International Parental Kidnapping Unit to assist with safe return.
9. Granting name change: Kostiantyn Mars to Royce Mars (Case 24CV441024);
10. Issuing protective SSN/ID relief (new SSN to prevent further fraud).
11. Ordering return of Petitioner's vehicle VW Tiguan (CA plate 7ZND242).
12. Awarding treble damages under 18 U.S.C. § 1964(c) in the amount of $750,000 for all property injuries caused by the unlawful DCSS wage garnishment, fabricated arrears, and related predicate acts of extortion and theft (as fully documented in Consolidated Evidence Binder - Exhibit A, Set 5, Exhibits A-49 through A-54, including the DCSS Wage Garnishment Summary Chart and Total Extortion and Theft Summary Chart), together with compensatory damages in the amount of $250,000 and punitive damages in the amount of $5,000,000 to punish and deter the egregious, malicious, and oppressive conduct of the racketeering enterprise operating under color of law.
13. Declaring the vexatious litigant pre-filing order issued on March 11, 2024 in Case No. 22FL003144 by disqualified Judge Stephen Lowney void ab initio under California Code of Civil Procedure § 170.4(d), vacating said order with prejudice, and directing the California Judicial Council and the Clerk of the Santa Clara County Superior Court to

1 immediately remove Plaintiff Kostiantyn Mars from the statewide Vexatious
2 Litigant List maintained pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 391.7.

3 14. In light of the documented pattern of racketeering and retaliation, threats of unlawful
4 incarceration, and systemic corruption within the Santa Clara County Superior Court,
5 Plaintiff respectfully requests that any hearing on the Emergency Motion for Temporary
6 Restraining Order or the Motion to Dismiss Criminal Case B2402220 be conducted
7 remotely by video with mandatory audio and video recording by the Court. This
8 safeguard is necessary to protect Plaintiff's safety, prevent further violations of due
9 process, and ensure independent federal oversight of the proceedings.

10 V. CONCLUSION AND PRAYER FOR RELIEF

11 Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant the Emergency Temporary Restraining Order
12 and all relief requested in the Notice of Removal.
