RE: Case Number: 24-O-13251
Respondent: Steven Allen Dinneen

Dear Kostiantyn Mars:

The State Bar's Office of Chief Trial Counsel has reviewed your complaint against Steven Allen Dinneen to determine whether there are sufficient grounds to prosecute a possible violation of the State Bar Act and/or Rules of Professional Conduct.

You allege that Mr. Dinneen has engaged in fraud, malpractice, and has participated in organized crime. You allege that Mr. Dinneen has participated in international child abduction outside of the United States through bribing judges, falsification of court records, falsification of financial documents, and manipulation of court proceedings. Further, you allege that Mr. Dinneen has engaged in intentionally harmful motions and requests to court that were granted by bribed judges, severe abuse of judicial power, massive financial and documental fraud, threats, and coercion.

Based on our evaluation of the information provided, we are closing your complaint. In order to investigate allegations of attorney misconduct, the State Bar needs specific facts which, if proved, would establish a violation of the attorney's ethical duties. You allege that Mr. Dinneen has engaged in fraud, misconduct, and organized crime. However, you have not provided sufficient facts or evidence to support your allegations. Conclusions based on speculation and not supported by facts are insufficient to warrant investigation. We have determined that your complaint does not present sufficient facts to support an investigation.

For these reasons, the State Bar is closing this matter.

If you have new facts and circumstances that you believe may change our determination to close your complaint, you may submit a written statement with the new information to the Intake Unit for review. If you have any questions about this process, you may call Trial Counsel Veronika Barsegyan at 213-765-1258. If you leave a voice message, be sure to clearly identify the lawyer complained of, the case number assigned, and your telephone number including the area code. We should return your call within two business days.

If you have presented all of the information that you wish to have considered, and you disagree with the decision to close your complaint, you may request that the State Bar's Complaint Review Unit review your complaint. The Complaint Review Unit will recommend that your complaint be reopened if it determines that further investigation is warranted. To request review by the Complaint Review Unit, you must submit your request in writing, either:

- 1) Via email: Within 90 days of the date of this letter, by email to: CRU@calbar.ca.gov; or
- 2) Via United States Mail: Post-marked within 90 days of the date of this letter, by United States Mail to:

The State Bar of California
Complaint Review Unit
Office of General Counsel
180 Howard Street
San Francisco, CA 94105-1617

If you decide to send new information or documents to this office, the 90-day period will continue to run during the time that this office considers the new material. You may wish to consult with legal counsel for advice regarding any other available remedies. You may contact your local or county bar association to obtain the names of attorneys to assist you in this matter.

We would appreciate if you would complete a short, anonymous survey about your experience with filing your complaint. While your responses to the survey will not change the outcome of the complaint you filed against the attorney, the State Bar will use your answers to help improve the services we provide to the public. The survey can be found at <https://www.calbar.org/octc/intake>.
