Complaint

Judicial officer Stephen Lowney was just assigned in Department 79 in January 2024 - but from the very first month of his assignment already started behave extremely suspiciously (previous judge Andrea Flint was disqualified for suspect of bribery and severe repetitive fraud on court, committed in favor of opposing lawyer Nancy Roberts who was suspected in bribing Flint):

1. Lowney unreasonably removed from calendar Contempt hearing 01/02/2024;
2. Each hearing Lowney was suspiciously talking to Nancy Roberts, like he is waiting for something from her - and was rescheduling hearings to not demonstrate his position on this case.

Such unreasonable rescheduling of all hearings, and "waiting for something" position was extremely suspicious, after previous judge Andrea Flint was disqualified (11/13/2024) for suspect of bribery and severe repetitive fraud on court (falsification of court records, removing signed emergency screener recommendations, ordering financial fraud orders based on falsified bank statements presented by Nancy Roberts for Flint's signature).

Stephen Lowney was aware about what happened to Andrea Flint, and was refusing to hear any matters on my case 22FL003144 rescheduling everything to February.

Later he committed massive fraud on court, which led to the first Statement of Disqualification against him (attached).
