EXHIBIT A-57

PUBLIC RECORD OF RACKETEERING

BY SERHII “GONDON” NAHORNYI (FATHER OF RESPONDENT)

AND IVAN “PEDOFIL” OMELCHENKO IN UKRAINE (2015) -

REPEATING THE SAME PATTERN OF RACKETEERING

IN ATTACK ON PETITIONER (2022)

Description: Public media reports and records from 2015 documenting racketeering activity by Serhii Nahorny (father of Respondent) and Ivan Omelchenko against their former business partner Serhii Rybalko in Ukraine. The reports describe the use of fabricated criminal charges, unlawful arrests, threats, extortion, and the involvement of law enforcement and judicial officials to facilitate the seizure of assets and hostile takeover of a business. This exhibit is offered to illustrate a pattern of racketeering under 18 U.S.C. § 1961 et seq. that is repeated in the targeted racketeering attack against Petitioner in 2022 - 2025 (including unlawful arrest in 2024, fabricated criminal case, unlawful seizure of assets and property, aggravated kidnapping of Petitioner’s son Max Mars and removal of Max from Petitioner’s custody using void orders issued by criminals from Santa Clara Mafia Cartel on positions of disqualified judges acting outside jurisdiction and corrupt police officers committing threats, theft and unlawful arrests)

Date: 2015 - 2022

Description: Wikipedia article and related public records concerning alleged racketeering activity targeting co-founder Serhii Rybalko of SI Group (also referred to as S.Group). The materials document fabricated criminal charges, involvement of law enforcement and tax authorities, asset seizures, and the resulting hostile takeover of the business by criminal syndicate of Ivan Omelchenko and Serhii Nahornyy. This exhibit is submitted to illustrate a pattern of racketeering conduct under 18 U.S.C. § 1961 et seq. that is substantially similar to the pattern of activity documented in the present case.

S.Group

Unverified version (what to do?)

Material from Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia.

S.Group is a group of Ukrainian companies that produce food products and household goods. The group is one of the leading Ukrainian manufacturers of snack products (peanuts, pistachios, packaged sunflower and pumpkin seeds, potato and pita chips, extrusion), as well as a major exporter to the countries of Central Asia and the Middle East.

History

S.Group companies have been operating on the market since 1995 as part of SIGroup, founded by entrepreneurs Serhiy Rybalka and Ivan Omelchenko. However, after the division of SIGroup, the new structure entered the market on August 1, 2014. S.Group includes some of the production facilities, structural divisions, and trademarks of the "merged" company.

The entire product range is exported to most countries.

Conflict with ATB

The cause of the corporate conflict between S.Group and ATB-Market was a family conflict between the founders of the two structures — Sergey Rybalko and his former father-in-law Gennady Butkevych (father of Rybalko's ex-wife Hanna Butkevych). In 2013 , with the assistance of Butkevych, the tax and police carried out numerous searches and stopped production at Rybalko's enterprises, which forced him to leave the country. Law enforcement agencies accused the company of tax evasion. After the Revolution of Dignity, the persecution stopped.

Currently, the parties are in a court economic dispute regarding the repayment by ATB of a debt of over UAH 110 million for the delivered goods. In turn, ATB accuses its opponents of creating an organized criminal group with the aim of seizing someone else's property. According to S.Group, in November 2015, the General Director of ATB-Market LLC, Dmytro Yevteyev, filed a corresponding application with the Prosecutor's Office of the Dnipropetrovsk Region . However, the application was accepted only by the Prosecutor General's Office .

In court, copies of documents are provided to confirm the absence of debt, which S.Group calls falsified. ATB does not provide the originals. The case is under consideration in the Kyiv Commercial Court of Appeal .

How to benefit from disagreements with a partner and strengthen your position in the market, despite the crisis.

"We managed to get into the top ten with this product," — Dmitry Rybalka, Chairman of the Board of Directors of S.Group, twirls a pack of TM "Sneikin" crackers in his hands and examines the funny character on the package. A year and a half ago, after 19 years of work in the snack market, he and his brother Sergey had to rebuild half of the production processes from scratch after "divorcing" with their partner. "Having set out on our own, we were able not only to increase production, but also to release fundamentally new products," he adds.

How the roads diverged

Entrepreneurs Serhiy Rybalka and Ivan Omelchenko have been friends since they were 14 years old. In the early 1990s, they decided to start a joint business - they were among the first to import imported household chemicals to Ukraine. After some time, they founded the company SiGroup, which very quickly became a leader in the production of snacks. The successful development of the joint business was stopped by Rybalka's family conflict with his former father-in-law - co-owner of the country's largest supermarket chain "ATB-Market" Gennady Butkevych.

"I was searched, drugs were planted, and many criminal cases were opened. Our products were "exhibited" from "ATB", which had a critical impact on sales. It probably seemed to the partner that I, being in prison with one foot, was dragging the business to the bottom. He decided to separate, I learned about it as a fait accompli," says Serhiy Rybalka. Thus, two experienced players, once united by one goal, emerged on the Ukrainian snack market: S.Group and Snack Production. Ivan Omelchenko refused to comment on the story of the divorce.

From monopolist to leader

It was not easy sailing on its own. Rybalka considers the division unfair, primarily because his ex-partner Omelchenko, who was responsible for personnel in the joint business, took the main part of the team with him. In addition, S.Group inherited the debts of ATB-market for the delivered goods totaling $15 million. However, the main difficulty was to divide the brands.

Before the division, SiGroup was a leader and de facto monopolist in the production of various types of snack products. S.Group received Semki seeds, Kozatskaya razvoja peanuts (later Kozatskaya slava), pistachios and chips under the Macho and Red brands, as well as the entire pulp and paper business and the logistics company Phaelon-Trans. Snack Production received the flagship Flint crackers and Morski seafood, and the Khutorok consumer goods line. "Our proposal was quite peaceful: everyone develops the group of products that remained after the division, we work in our riches, we do not interfere with each other. But my former partner decided otherwise and began to develop the areas that were transferred from SiGroup to our structure. Of course, we also decided to expand the lost areas, as well as develop new ones," says Dmitry Rybalka. Thus, the S.Group portfolio includes crackers, croutons, pita chips, potato chips, extrusion under the "Sneikin" brand, seafood "My Fisherman", and Lavka seeds.

Excerpt from Statement of Disqualification confirming coercive orders selling property and business to Towery's criminal associates:

"... Judge Towery appeared at a January 20, 2015 hearing on an ex parte motion to sell the Gilroy property filed by opposing attorney Brad Baugh. ... At the Jan. 20, 2015 ex parte hearing, I objected to Judge Towery making orders to sell our Gilroy property on the grounds it would disrupt my livelihood..."

Page 6, paragraph 6:

"Judge Towery overruled my objection. He ordered me and my business to vacate the Gilroy property.

Judge Towery's orders compelled the sale of the print magazine to local, competing publisher Dan Pulcrano at a fire-sale price."

Kostiantyn Mars
211 Hope Street, #391751
Mountain View, CA 94041

Dear Kostiantyn Mars:

At its October 2024 meeting, the Commission on Judicial Performance voted to close your complaints received February 28, July 18, and July 30, 2024, including your further correspondence received in July and August 2024.

After considering all the information, the commission determined that there was insufficient support for the allegations of impropriety in your complaints and that judicial misconduct could not be established by clear and convincing evidence, as is required in commission proceedings and your case has been closed.

Your July and August submissions are also considered further correspondence to complaints that you submitted concerning two different California judicial officers (which the commission voted to close in December 2023 and May 2024). Your submissions have been considered in order to determine whether there is any basis for action by this commission. It has been concluded that the contents of the letters do not provide grounds for proceeding further. Your submissions do not support a basis for finding judicial misconduct.

Very truly yours,

Dear Kostiantyn Mars:

At its May 2024 meeting, the Commission on Judicial Performance voted to close your complaint received February 28, 2024.

After considering all the information before it about this matter, the commission determined that there was insufficient support for the allegations of impropriety in your complaint and that judicial misconduct could not be established by clear and convincing evidence, as is required in commission proceedings.

Your letter has also been considered further correspondence to your August 7, 2023 complaint in order to determine whether there is any basis for action by this commission. It has been concluded that the contents of the letter do not provide grounds for proceeding further. Your submission does not support a basis for finding judicial misconduct.

Dear Kostiantyn Mars:

At its December 2023 meeting, the Commission on Judicial Performance voted to close your complaint received August 7, 2023, including your further correspondence received August 22, September 9, September 11, September 14, September 16, October 25, November 7, November 8, November 16, and November 20, 2023.

After considering all the information before it about this matter, the commission determined that there was insufficient support for the allegations of impropriety in your complaint and that judicial misconduct could not be established by clear and convincing evidence, as is required in commission proceedings.

We have also received your further correspondence dated December 9, 2023. This recent submission also does not provide a basis for commission proceedings.

We appreciate your time and effort in bringing this matter to the commission's attention.

Very truly yours,

RE: Case Number: 23-O-26303
Respondent: Nancy Lee Roberts

Dear Kostiantyn Mars:

The State Bar's Office of Chief Trial Counsel has reviewed your complaint against Nancy Lee Roberts to determine whether there are sufficient grounds to prosecute a possible violation of the State Bar Act and/or Rules of Professional Conduct.

In your complaint you state that Nancy Lee Roberts is the opposing counsel in your family law matter. You alleged that Nancy Lee Roberts is suspected of bribing the judge in your matter, and thus has a conflict of interest. Additionally, you alleged that Nancy Lee Roberts falsified court documents, lied to the court, and is facilitating child abductions.

Based on our evaluation of the information provided, we are closing your complaint against Nancy Lee Roberts. In order to investigate allegations of lawyer misconduct, the State Bar needs specific facts which, if proved, would establish a violation of the lawyer's ethical duties. Conclusions based on speculation and not supported by facts are insufficient to warrant investigation. We have determined that your complaint does not present facts to support investigation of your complaint.

Additionally, please be advised that the State Bar cannot review or change the decisions of the civil courts. If you are not satisfied with the outcome of your matter, the court having the proper jurisdiction, including possibly a Court of Appeal, is the appropriate place to raise any

| The State Bar's Office of Chief Trial Counsel has reviewed your complaint against Steven Allen Dinneen to determine whether there are sufficient grounds to prosecute a possible violation of the State Bar Act and/or Rules of Professional Conduct. You allege that Mr. Dinneen has engaged in fraud, malpractice, and has participated in organized crime. You allege that Mr. Dinneen has participated in international child abduction outside of the United States through bribing judges, falsification of court records, falsification of financial documents, and manipulation of court proceedings. Further, you allege that Mr. Dinneen has engaged in intentionally harmful motions and requests to court that were granted by bribed judges, severe abuse of judicial power, massive financial and documental fraud, threats, and coercion. Based on our evaluation of the information provided, we are closing your complaint. In order to investigate allegations of attorney misconduct, the State Bar needs specific facts which, if proved, would establish a violation of the attorney's ethical duties. You allege that Mr. Dinneen has engaged in fraud, misconduct, and organized crime. However, you have not provided sufficient facts or evidence to support your allegations. Conclusions based on speculation and not supported by facts are insufficient to warrant investigation. We have determined that your complaint does not present sufficient facts to support an investigation. For these reasons, the State Bar is closing this matter. |                                        |                                                                                        |

20 President of the United States
21 The White House
22 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
23 Washington, D.C. 20500

24 SUBJECT: REQUEST FOR FEDERAL INTERVENTION AND INVESTIGATION INTO
25 JUDICIAL CORRUPTION, RACKETEERING, AND EXTORTION IN SANTA CLARA COUNTY

26 Dear President Biden,

27 I write to bring your urgent attention to an entrenched criminal enterprise within the Santa Clara
28 County Superior Court. High-ranking judicial officers and attorneys in this county have conspired to engage in racketeering and extortion under the guise of legal authority. Given the severity and scope of this judicial misconduct, I respectfully request immediate federal intervention and a comprehensive investigation by the Department of Justice and the FBI.

Background

The criminal activities in question involve multiple violations of federal statutes, including:

1. Racketeering and Extortion (18 U.S.C. § 1961 - RICO Act; 18 U.S.C. § 1951 - Hobbs Act): Judges Stephen Lowney, Andrea Flint, and James Towery, along with Attorney Nancy Roberts, have engaged in a pattern of racketeering. These individuals abused their judicial authority to extort money, issue fraudulent court orders, and facilitate the kidnapping of my son, Max Mars, for the purpose of international abduction to Ukraine. Their acts of coercion, financial exploitation, and judicial fraud constitute violations of the RICO and Hobbs Acts.

Governor Gavin Newsom
Governor of California
California State Capitol
1021 O Street, Suite 9000
Sacramento, CA 95814

SUBJECT: URGENT REQUEST FOR INTERVENTION AND INVESTIGATION INTO JUDICIAL CORRUPTION, RACKETEERING, AND EXTORTION WITHIN SANTA CLARA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

Dear Governor Newsom,

I am writing to urgently request your direct intervention in addressing systemic corruption and organized criminal activity that has deeply penetrated the judicial system in Santa Clara County. As outlined in the enclosed documentation, I have been the target of a criminal enterprise involving high-ranking judicial officers and attorneys operating under the guise of legal authority.

These individuals have engaged in racketeering, extortion, and judicial misconduct in violation of both federal and state law. Given the severity and scope of this misconduct, I am requesting an immediate independent investigation by state authorities, under your direction, and the disqualification of the involved judicial officers from further participation in any legal proceedings.

Background and Allegations

The judicial corruption involves, but is not limited to, the following:

1. Racketeering and Extortion under Color of Law: Judges Stephen Lowney, Andrea Flint, and James Towery, along with Attorney Nancy Roberts, have participated in a systematic campaign of racketeering and extortion. Their actions appear to be in violation of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (RICO) Act (18 U.S.C. § 1961 et seq.) and the Hobbs Act (18 U.S.C. § 1951), as they have conspired to commit extortion through fraudulent judicial orders aimed at depriving me of my legal rights, property, and custody of my child.

SUBJECT: REQUEST FOR STATE INTERVENTION TO HALT JUDICIAL RACKETEERING IN SANTA CLARA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

Dear Attorney General Bonta,

I am writing to urgently request your intervention in addressing pervasive judicial corruption and racketeering within the Santa Clara County Superior Court. Over the past year, I have been a victim of a criminal enterprise involving multiple judges, attorneys, and litigants who have engaged in systematic extortion, fraud, and gross violations of my civil rights.

Summary of the Situation:

1. Judicial Racketeering and Corruption

Judges Stephen Lowney, Andrea Flint, James Towery, and Presiding Judge Beth McGowen have conspired with attorneys Nancy Roberts and Steven Dinneen in a scheme involving bribes, fraudulent court orders, and coercive tactics. These actions have been used to extort money from me, deprive me of my parental rights, and facilitate the international abduction of my son, Max Mars.

SUBJECT: COMPLAINT AGAINST JUDGES FOR JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND RACKETEERING - SANTA CLARA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

Dear Members of the Commission on Judicial Performance,

I am submitting this formal complaint concerning the egregious judicial misconduct committed by multiple judges in the Santa Clara County Superior Court. These actions involve violations of ethical standards, federal and state laws, and clear abuse of judicial power. The judges implicated are:

1. Presiding Judge Beth McGowen
  - o Misconduct: Concealed the disqualification of Judges Stephen Lowney, Andrea Flint, and James Towery in case 22FL003144. She allowed these disqualified judges to continue presiding over my case, despite their disqualification due to conflicts of interest and their involvement in racketeering and extortion. She failed to transfer the case to another department, enabling further judicial misconduct.
2. Judge Stephen Lowney
  - o Misconduct: Engaged in repeated acts of fraud, threats, coercion, and abuse of judicial resources. Despite being disqualified on multiple occasions, he continued to issue retaliatory rulings, including my arrest and a restraining order against my son. His rulings were influenced by bribery and aimed at facilitating the abduction of my son to Ukraine.
3. Judge Andrea Flint
  - o Misconduct: Despite being disqualified, she committed fraud by issuing court orders that facilitated the abduction of my child, the enforcement of domestic violence, and the falsification of court records. These actions were retaliatory, with the clear intent of obstructing justice.

REPORT OF JUDICIAL CORRUPTION AND CIVIL RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN SANTA CLARA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

Details of the Violation:

I am submitting this report to expose extensive judicial corruption and civil rights violations occurring within the Santa Clara County Superior Court. My rights and those of my son, Max Mars, have been repeatedly violated through judicial misconduct, racketeering, and extortion conducted by multiple judges and attorneys.

Summary of Events:

Over the past two years, I have been subjected to a campaign of judicial corruption that includes:

1. Racketeering and Extortion (RICO Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1961): Judges Stephen Lowney, Andrea Flint, James Towery, and Presiding Judge Beth McGowen have participated in racketeering schemes by accepting bribes from attorneys Nancy Roberts and Steven Dinneen. These judges have issued fraudulent restraining orders and financial judgments designed to extort money from me and deprive me of my parental rights.
2. Obstruction of Justice and Retaliation (18 U.S.C. §§ 1503 and 1513): Despite being disqualified, these judges continued to preside over my case (22FL003144), obstructing justice and retaliating against me for filing complaints and motions to disqualify them. Their retaliatory measures include unlawful arrests, vexatious litigant orders, and restraining orders prohibiting contact with my son.
3. Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law (18 U.S.C. § 242): These judges have abused their positions of power to issue unlawful rulings that violate my civil rights, including the right to due process and equal protection under the law. Their actions have facilitated the international abduction of my son to Ukraine.

Екстрений Запит Щодо Забезпечення Заходів Безпеки Та Заборони Випуска
Нового Паспорта Для Мого Сина Максима Марса

Шановний Пане Генеральний Консул Дмитро Кушнерук,

До мене поступила інформація що організована злочинність, яка практикує наразі хабарництво, рекет, викрадення дітей та шахрайство одночасно на теренах України та у Сполучених Штатах Америки, намагається скористатися Вашою допомогою щоб випустити новий паспорт для мого сина Максима Марса (дата народження 11/23/2015), та за допомогою цього паспорта нелегально вивезти мою дитину за терени Сполучених Штатів Америки.

Будь-ласка, перевірте та підтвердіть чи є в Генеральному Консульстві активні, нові чи завершені запити на перевипуск паспорту для неповнолітнього громадянина України Максима Марса (дата народження 11/23/2015)?

У разі якщо такий запит є, я прошу вас зупинити випуск паспорту і негайно поінформувати мене і поліцію Сан Франциско.
